some time and all that the best medical skill and loving care could do was unavailing. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at the St. Boniface church.

ARTISTIC EASTER DISPLAY
Beautiful Window Display at Malley, Neely & Co.'s store.

Much attention has been attracted to the Easter window at Malley, Neely & Co.'s store on account of the exquisite taste and beauty shown in its decoration. The scene represented is from the realm of Fairyland and represents the Goddess of the Springtime ushering in the Easter season. The Goddess or Queen is a beautiful creature in wax, gowned in a gorgeous robe of white Henrietta, with gold spangle net trimmings. In her right hand is grasped the magic wand.

Easter is symbolized by a float on four golden wheels and surmounted by an Easter egg. A large doll that would delight the heart of many a grown-up child sits upon the egg and is driving with long ribbons the four other dolls, lightly harnessed. The figures are dressed in Nile green and pink. The float itself is finished in white fluffy swirls. But the display of flowers is what puts on the artistic touch to the white affair. Red, white and yellow roses and their green leaves are strewn about in lavish profusion, and covering the whole is an elaborate arbor also made of the flowers and leaves.

The window is the work of Thomas R.
Matthews, the firm's window dresser, and is considered the most artistic display in the city.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results—Oscar Ostrom, 45 Warren avenue, Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.

At the Grand Opera House.
The dramatization of H. Rider Haggard's "She" was presented to a good sized audience at this theater last evening and was throughout a most pleasing performance. The scenery, much of it, was most impressive, especially the ruined city of Kor by moonlight. The play opens with a prologue, the time being about 440 B. C. The drama proper is represented as at the present period.

The play holds quite closely to the novel and some comedy has been introduced to enliven the somewhat somber impression made by the piece and to relieve it of its dreary aspect. It is the story of a student in search of an immortal in Central Africa. He is directed there by papers left by his father, they having descended for some sixty generations.

Lawrence Grant as "Leo Vincoy," the sixty-eighth lineal descendant of "Kail-krates," portrayed his part well. The comedy roles were taken care of by Messrs. De Vande and Borting, both creating plenty of merriment as "Vincoy's" servants. The weird scenes of the play are highly effective and the play is admirably presented. There will be a special matinee this afternoon besides the regular performances this and to-morrow evenings, with a matinee to-morrow afternoon.

AN EASTER FESTIVAL.
For the young ladies' Easter festival, which will be held next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Children of Mary at the new Sacred Heart hall, a handsome souvenir program has been issued, in which is given a history of the Sacred Heart church written by George E.
Barn. It also contains cuts of the pastors of the church, and its officers, and the various buildings, which the parish has occupied since its organization.

For the entertainment a number of artists will take part. There will be a tableau by seven young ladies, a lawn tennis dance by sixteen young ladies, and a minstrel performance by local talent. The Misses Sullivan and Crotty and Mrs. Howard will sing; also Miss Mary McDonough, Miss Marie Ward and Peter Kaine. There will be recitations by C. E. Larom, Miss Katherine Keefe and Miss Minnie Belle Kay and Miss Barlow will render several violin solos. There will be dancing at the close of each entertainment. A matinee

NORTH HAVEN.

April 11.—The roll call and social of the W. C. T. U. at Center chapel on Wednesday was of interest to the members and to several visitors present. Those who remained in the chapel until time for the evening service in the lecture room enjoyed that also.

Mr. C. B. Foote is again able to be out and around about his Sunday school work. Last Sunday he supplied two M. E. pulpits in Wilton, Fairfield county, in the absence of the pastors attend yearly conference. He also addressed the Sunday schools, making a busy day.

William M. Owen, who recently sold his place to Mr. Luke Shields of New Haven, is engaged for the year on the Benedict farm. Mr. Shields has been with Sperry & Barnes of New Haven the last twenty-four years.

The relations of Mr. Isaac Mansfield of Morris, N. Y., have received news of his death, which occurred at his home on April 8, 1895. Mr. Mansfield was born in North Haven in 1815 and removed to Butternut, (now Morris), Otsego county, N. Y., when eight years old. He married May 15, 1842, Miss Merla Hitchcock of Morris, which has since been their home. He was the only brother of the late Mr. Edwin Mansfield of North Haven.

William M. Owen has sold his place in district No. 5 to Luke Shields of New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Terrell, who have spent the winter in Florida, arrived home on Friday. Mr. Terrell looks as if he had lived well while away.

The veteran soldiers will meet in Memorial hall on Thursday evening to make arrangements for the observation of Memorial day.
